SHABBAT SERVICE MARCH 22 FEATURES CLASSICAL LITURGICAL MUSIC

Event In Memory of Sarah and Samuel Shapiro

The congregation, their families and friends are invited to attend a unique musical experience, the Fourth Annual Sabbath Service of Classical Liturgical Music, Saturday, March 22, beginning at 9:30 A.M. in the Sanctuary.

The service, prepared by Conductor Abraham Kaplan, includes some well-known favorites, some little-known published gems, and a large group of unpublished compositions. Works by composers Eliezer Gerovitch, Jacob Margolis, Abraham Dunajewsky and David Nowakowsky of Russia, Solomon Sulzer and Sholom Zvi Zemachson of Austria, Louis Lewandowski of Germany and Samuel Naumbourg of France are represented. Mr. Kaplan and Cantor David Lefkowitz believe this collection represents a documentary of the outstanding contributions of these artists to the religious and cultural life of European Jewry. A recording of this service is planned.

The first service dedicated to a presentation of classical liturgical music was presented to the congregation in the spring of 1977. It was felt at the time that this service would complement Park Avenue Synagogue's reputation for encouraging and presenting new music from outstanding contemporary composers for the Sabbath Eve Service. Since then interest in, and enthusiasm for, this service has grown steadily. Last year the service, dedicated to the music of Russian composer David Nowakowsky (1849-1921), drew an audience of nearly 1000 people.

Cantor Lefkowitz made the following observation:

"These composers were great innovators in Jewish religious and cultural life at a time when the Jew was emerging from the ghetto. These men were pioneers, traveling on paths that never before had been attempted. They forged new patterns and developed new colors as they harmonized prayer modes and traditional melodic motifs which, until then, had existed only as solo melodic lines or unions. They gradually developed musical forms which worked well with the Hebrew prayers. As time removes us farther from our nineteenth century predecessors, I begin to see more clearly the enormous influence which that music has had on synagogues throughout the world. The

Are we running out of energy? Is the U.S. economy aging and tired? What of OPEC? Inflation? How will the crises in Iran and Afghanistan affect American Jews? Israel? These are among the subjects and issues to be discussed by Dr. Amitai Etzioni at Park Avenue Synagogue, Sunday, March 16, at 3 P.M.

This lecture, sponsored by the Mr. and Mrs. Club, and open to the entire congregation and community, is the only lecture Dr. Etzioni will give in New York City this year.

Dr. Etzioni, on leave from Columbia University where he is a professor and Director of the Center for Policy Research, is working for the White House on alternatives, both social and economic, for the future of American Society.

Born in Germany, he grew up in Israel where he was a member of the Palmach, the commando wing of the Haganah, for four years. He received his A.B. and M.A. degrees from the Hebrew University in Jerusalem. He earned his Ph.D. at the University of California at Berkeley.

Dr. Etzioni has written many books and articles on a variety of subjects dealing with society, human rights, health, medicine, privacy and the "right to know."

A question-and-answer period will follow the lecture. Refreshments will be served.

Celebration Takes Talent

This March is very special—on the first day of the month we celebrate the festival of Purim, and on the last day we usher in our festival of freedom — Pesah. What wonderful ideas are encapsulated in both these holidays. What an extraordinary opportunity they give us to live our lives as Jews with meaning and with joy.

We have been described so often as a people of tragedy, whose lives and history are laden down with the darkness and doom of persecution, privation and a general aura of sadness. We can scarcely deny that ours has been a history where the shadow has, at least, competed with the sunshine, and yet, our year — each year — is studded with bright gems of holidays which raise us up and cause us to lift our glasses of wine as we feel that indeed our "cup runneth over." For if we have learned anything at all from these millennia of sheer living, it is knowing how to taste and savor the goodness and flavor of life. That is why our holidays are crucial to our existence. They provide the sunshine and the light that we take to our hearts and cherish as a precious possession.

So on Purim we read the Megillah. We drown out the name of Haman, of the many Hamans who have brought — and are bringing — misery and suffering to humanity, and we sing and dance when we read again of the victory of our people. We read, and we sing and dance, we eat and drink and fill the day with feasting and celebration.

Thirty days later, history and celebration join hands again at the unique Passover Seder. A meal, a ritual, a history lesson and a family gathering all rolled into one memorable night which has probably done more to educate, enlighten and inspire Jews than any other single institution.

Surviving unhappiness is something we must do. Knowing how to celebrate life takes a special talent. We Jews have always had it. Let's not lose it.

Exhibit DANZIG 1939 At Jewish Museum March 26

An exhibition entitled DANZIG 1939: TREASURES OF A DESTROYED COMMUNITY will be on view at the Jewish Museum from March 26 through August 17, 1980.

This exhibition traces the history of the Danzig Jewish community from the 17th century to the Nazi era. 134 gold, silver, bronze and brass ceremonial objects and textile—Torah crowns, Torah shields, rimmonim, seder plates, menorahs, alms boxes, spice boxes, Kiddush cups, prayer books, torah ark curtains and more—will be shown to the general public for the first time since leaving Danzig.

In addition, photographs and documents tell the story of the early years when Jews were not allowed to live in Danzig (present day Gdansk) and were required to secure permits to trade in the city; the prosperous era of the '20s when Jews did live in Danzig, filling the highest professional roles as doctors, teachers and leaders of the community; the rise of anti-semitism and Nazi supremacy.

Taped interviews tell poignant tales of separated families, the sheltering of Jews by non-Jews, the search for survival.

Mrs. Elizabeth Cats, a member of Park Avenue Synagogue, did the research on the collection and the community. Her article on the exhibit will appear in MOMENT magazine.

The Jewish Museum, operated under the auspices of The Jewish Theological Seminary of America, is located at 1109 Fifth Avenue, between 92 and 93 Streets in Manhattan.

Sisterhood Sabbath Features Judge Ellerin as Speaker

The Honorable Betty Ellerin, New York State Supreme Court Judge, will speak on "The Jews of Russia: A Modern Day Exodus" at the Oneg Shabbat following the Friday Night Service of Sisterhood Sabbath, March 28.

Judge Ellerin is an authority on this topic as she is the President of the Women's Division of HIAS.

She was the first woman to be appointed as a law secretary to a regularly elected Justice of the Supreme Court. She is a past president of the New York Women's Bar Association and the first woman president of the Supreme Court Law Assistants and Secretaries Association.

Before her election to the State Supreme Court, she was a Civil Court Judge.

She is a founder and past president of the Emma Lazarus Chapter of HIAS and also served as Chairman of the Board of the Women's Division before becoming President.

Services begin at 8:30 P.M. in the Sanctuary.

Men's Club Gives Purim Party For Project Ezra Members

Men's Club is sponsoring a Purim Party for the members of Project Ezra at the Educational Alliance on Sunday, March 9 at noon.

Project Ezra is a volunteer organization dedicated to helping the Jewish elderly living on the Lower East Side cope with the realities of life there.

Every year, the Men's Club sponsors a Hanukkah Party for Project Ezra members at the synagogue. The Party has become an event much anticipated by the senior citizens of Project Ezra. As a result of the success of the Hanukkah Party, it was decided to give a Purim Party this year as well, but at the meeting place of Project Ezra, the Educational Alliance.

If you would like to volunteer to help Men's Club perform this mitzvah, call the synagogue today. Alan Bandler is chairman of the event.

Like To Sing? Join The Choral Group Thursdays at 8 P.M.

Passover Fund Helps Needy Celebrate Holiday

Each year members and friends of Park Avenue Synagogue show their desire to assist less fortunate fellow Jews at Passover time by contributing to the Park Avenue Synagogue Welfare Fund. This fund sends checks to agencies who do the actual distribution of funds and Passover supplies to the poor and needy:

The Joint Passover Association has offices in several boroughs of New York City and gives direct help to thousands—last year over 10,500 families were helped—to enable them to celebrate Passover.

The New York Board of Rabbis, through its corps of 200 chaplains, ministers throughout the year to the religious and spiritual needs of many thousands of Jewish men, women and children in public and voluntary hospitals, mental institutions, correctional institutions, youth shelters, nursing homes and homes for the aged throughout New York State. Before Passover the traditional holiday foods are distributed to them, as well as religious articles and literature.

In addition, the Passover Fund of Park Avenue Synagogue assists rabbis, scholars and other individuals in Israel, in the Soviet Union and in the United States.

Because of the increased cost of food, especially Passover provisions, it is hoped that there will be an even greater outpouring of generosity in support of this traditional effort.

Checks may be made payable to the Park Avenue Synagogue Welfare Fund and mailed to the synagogue office. Let your heart dictate the amount. You will enjoy your own family's Seder and the entire festival of Passover all the more knowing that you have made it possible for many others to celebrate it as well.

Congressman Speaker At Men's Club Sabbath Service

Congressman S. William Green will speak on "Israel As A Stabilizing Force in the Near East" at the annual Men's Club Sabbath, Friday, March 21 at 8:30 P.M. in the Sanctuary.

Congressman Green, the representative to Congress from the 17th Congressional District, was elected to office in a special election held in February, 1978. He is a member of the House Banking, Finance and Urban Affairs Committee and the Select Committee on Aging. He also serves as a trustee and vice-president of J.A.S.A., the Jewish Association for Services for the Aged.

The Men's Club of Park Avenue Synagogue is a member of the National Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs which is celebrating Men's Club Sabbath nationally on March 21.

Volunteers Needed To Help Hospitalized Children

The Mt. Sinai Hospital has asked Park Avenue Synagogue for help.

There are children who must spend a long time in the Pediatric Ward of Mt. Sinai Hospital, separated from their parents. Some of these children are infants and, since their parents are not able to be with them during the day, could suffer emotional and psychological retardation as a result of not having stimulating contact with adults.

You can help by volunteering a small amount of time to the Pediatrics Department. By your presence, through playing with a hospitalized child, you help to create the proper atmosphere not only for recovery, but also for future growth.

For more information on how to become involved, please contact Rabbi Wechsler.

congregational melodies which are sung most universally are those of Sulzer and Lewandowski, melodies which are now 150 years old! I also realize the importance of uncovering the obscure and unknown musical gems from that period and making them known and familiar. It will help us to understand the religious, the emotional and the political developments in Jewish life, all of which are mirrored in the music! We can then understand and appreciate the prayer book and gain direction for modern creativity as well."

Cantor Lefkowitz and Conductor Abraham Kaplan will be joined by Organist Neil Robinson and an 18 voice concert choir in the presentation of this Classical Liturgical Service.
